

Complaints Policy

Approved by:	The Directors'
Last reviewed:	September 2022
Next review due by:	September 2023

1. Aims

Our aim is to meet its statutory obligations when responding to complaints from parents of pupils at the organisation, and others.

When responding to complaints, we aim to:

- Be impartial and non-adversarial
- Facilitate a full and fair investigation by an independent person or panel, where necessary
- Address all the points at issue and provide an effective and prompt response
- Respect complainants' desire for confidentiality
- Treat complainants with respect
- Keep complainants informed of the progress of the complaints process
- Consider how the complaint can feed into school improvement evaluation processes

We try to resolve concerns or complaints by informal means wherever possible. Where this is not possible, formal procedures will be followed.

INTUEDUCATION will aim to give the complainant the opportunity to complete the complaints procedure in full.

To support this, we will ensure we publicise the existence of this policy and make it available on our website; www.intueducation.org

2. Legislation and guidance

This document meets the requirements of section 29 of the Education Act 2002, which states that schools must have and make available a procedure to deal with all complaints relating to their school and to any community facilities or services that the school provides.

It is also based on guidance for schools on complaints procedures from the Department for Education (DfE).

This document meets the requirements set out in part 7 of the schedule to the Education \(Independent School Standards\) Regulations 2014, which states that we must have and make available a written procedure to deal with complaints from parents of pupils at the school.

It is also based on guidance published by the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA) on creating a complaints procedure that complies with the above regulations, and refers to good practice guidance on setting up complaints procedures from the Department for Education (DfE).

It also refers to good practice guidance on setting up complaints procedures from the Department for Education (DfE).

In addition, it addresses duties set out in the Early Years Foundation Stage statutory framework with regards to dealing with complaints about the school's fulfilment of Early Years Foundation Stage requirements.

3. Definitions and scope

The DfE guidance explains the difference between a concern and a complaint.

A concern is defined as "an expression of worry or doubt over an issue considered to be important for which reassurances are sought".

The school will resolve concerns through day-to-day communication as far as possible.

A complaint is defined as "an expression of dissatisfaction however made, about actions taken or a lack of action".

The school intends to resolve complaints informally where possible, at the earliest possible stage.

There may be occasions when complainants would like to raise their concerns formally. This policy outlines the procedure pertaining to the handling of informal and formal complaints.

4. Principles for investigation

When investigating a complaint, we will try to clarify:

- What has happened
- Who was involved
- What the complainant feels would put things right

We also intend to address complaints as quickly as possible. To achieve this, realistic and reasonable time limits will be set for each action within each stage.

Where further investigations are necessary, new time limits will be set, and the complainant will be sent details of the new deadline with an explanation for the delay.

The organisation expects that complaints will be made as soon as possible after an incident arises and no later than 3 months afterwards. We will consider exceptions to this time frame in circumstances where there were valid reasons for not making a complaint at that time and the complaint can still be investigated in a fair manner for all involved.

5. Stages of complaint (not complaints against the Director's or a proprietor)

Stage 1: informal

The organisation will take informal concerns seriously and make every effort to resolve the matter quickly. It may be the case that the provision or clarification of information will resolve the issue.

The complainant should raise the complaint as soon as possible with the relevant member of staff. A complaint can be made either in person, by letter, telephone or email. If the complainant is unclear who to contact or how to contact them, they should contact us on the following email address; complaints@intueducation.org

The school will acknowledge informal complaints within 5 working days, and investigate and provide a response within 15 working days.

The informal stage will involve a meeting between the complainant and the director(s) and/or the subject of the complaint.

If the complaint is not resolved informally, it will be escalated to a formal complaint.

Stage 2: formal

The formal stage involves the complainant putting the complaint into writing via email to complaints@intueducation.org and/or the subject of the complaint. This letter should provide details such as relevant dates, times and the names of witnesses of events, alongside copies of any relevant documents. The complainant should also state what they feel would resolve the complaint.

The Director(s) (or other person appointed by the Directors for this purpose) will then conduct their own investigation. The written conclusion of this investigation will be sent to the complainant within 10 working days.

If the complainant is not satisfied with the response and wishes to proceed to the next stage of this procedure.

Stage 3: formal complaint to the school

Complaints will be escalated to the head teacher of the school if the complainant is not satisfied with the formal response of INTUEDUCATION. The complainant should inform the head teacher of the school the club is operating within, by writing a letter/email within 5 working days after receiving the formal response from INTUEDUCATION.

The school will hold a meeting with the Directors and/or the subject of the complaint and the complainant. This will be followed up in writing detailing the outcome of the meeting within 10 working days. If the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome/response of the school, then they can escalate the matters to the final stage (panel meeting).

Stage 4: panel meeting

The panel will be appointed by the school and must consist of at least 3 people who were not directly involved in the matters detailed in the complaint. In this instance it will more likely be the head teacher and the DSL's of the school.

The panel will have access to the existing record of the complaint's progress (see section 9).

The complainant must have reasonable notice of the date of the review panel; however, the review panel reserves the right to convene at their convenience rather than that of the complainant. At the review panel meeting, the complainant, Directors of INTUEDUCATION and/or the subject of the complaint and representatives, as appropriate, will be present. Each will have an opportunity to set out written or oral submissions prior to the meeting.

The complainant must be allowed to attend the panel hearing and be accompanied if they wish.

At the meeting, each individual will have the opportunity to give statements and present their evidence, and witnesses will be called, as appropriate, to present their evidence.

The panel, the complainant and the directors of INTUEDUCATION and/or the subject of the complaint, will be given the chance to ask and reply to questions. Once the complainant and the directors of INTUEDUCATION and/or the subject of the complaint representative(s) have presented their cases, they will be asked to leave and evidence will then be considered.

The panel must then put together its findings and recommendations from the case. The panel will also provide a copy of the findings and recommendations to the complainant and, where relevant, the individual who is the subject of the complaint, and make a copy available for inspection.

The school will inform those involved of the decision in writing within 15 working days.

6. Complaints against the Directors of INTUEDUCATION

Complaints made against the directors of the club should be directed to the head teacher (stage 3 of the complaint procedure).

7. Referring complaints on completion of INTUEDUCATION's procedure

If the complainant is unsatisfied with the outcome of the panel meeting and the complaint regarding the club does not meet standards set by the DfE in any of the following areas, the complainant can refer their complaint to the DfE:

- Education
- Pupil welfare and health and safety
- School premises
- Staff suitability
- Making information available to parents
- The spiritual, moral, social or cultural development of pupils

The DfE will consider reports of a major failure to meet the standards. Where appropriate, it can arrange an emergency inspection to look at pupil welfare and health and safety, and make sure that the club deals with serious failings.

For more information or to refer a complaint, see the following webpage:

<https://www.gov.uk/complain-about-school>

8. Persistent complaints

Where a complainant tries to re-open the issue with the club after the complaints procedure has been fully exhausted and has done everything it reasonably can in response to the complaint, the head teacher of the school will inform the complainant that the matter is closed.

If the complainant subsequently contacts the club again about the same issue, the club can choose not to respond. The normal circumstance in which we will not respond is if:

- The club has taken every reasonable step to address the complainant's needs, and
- The complainant has been given a clear statement of the club's position and their options (if any), and
- The complainant is contacting the club repeatedly but making substantially the same points each time

However, this list is not intended to be exhaustive.

The school will be most likely to choose not to respond if:

- We have reason to believe the individual is contacting the club with the intention of causing disruption or inconvenience, and/or
- The individual's letters/emails/telephone calls are often or always abusive or aggressive, and/or
- The individual makes insulting personal comments about, or threats towards staff and at the organisation.

Once the club has decided that it is appropriate to stop responding, the complainant will be informed in writing, either by letter or email.

The club will ensure when making this decision that complainants making any new complaint are heard, and that the club acts reasonably.

9. Record-keeping

INTUEDUCATION will record the progress of all complaints, including information about actions taken at all stages, the stage at which the complaint was resolved, and the final outcome. The records will also include copies of letters and emails, and notes relating to meetings and phone calls.

This material will be treated as confidential and held centrally, and will be viewed only by those involved in investigating the complaint or on the review panel.

This is except where the secretary of state (or someone acting on their behalf) or the complainant requests access to records of a complaint through a freedom of information (FOI) request or under the terms of the Data Protection Act, or where the material must be made available during an inspection.

Records of complaints will be kept for 7 years.

10. Learning lessons

The Directors will review any underlying issues raised by complaints with the head teacher of the school where appropriate, and respecting confidentiality, to determine whether there are any improvements that the club can make to its procedures or practice to help prevent similar events in the future.

11. Monitoring arrangements

The complaints records are logged and managed by the directors of INTUEDUCATION

This policy will be reviewed by the directors

At each review, the policy will be approved by the directors
